

WORKSHEET- PARALLELISM

Rewrite the following sentences using parallel structure:

1. To lose weight, eat smaller portions and limiting second helpings.
2. Alexander Graham Bell was a painter, teacher, and he invented things.
3. Doctors say I should run, swim, and go walking.
4. The qualities I admire most in a man are honesty, courageous and being compassionate.
5. My brother enjoys not only cooking the meal, but also to do the dishes.
6. Little ducks are always quacking and follow each other.
7. Jacob thought the cartoon was unexciting, childish and was too long.
8. To win Laura's love, Albert visited the florist for roses, the chocolate shop for a box of chocolates and the jeweller where he bought an expensive gold necklace.
9. Christina won't date Terry because he is too short, too noisy, and doesn't have patience.
10. I spent four hours with Tom, reviewing my project performance, evaluating my targets, and my future prospects with the organisation was also discussed.
11. They will not admit their mistake nor will they be apologising.
12. I have decided to quit this job and I am looking for a better opportunity.
13. Christie was not only Sarah's sister, but also she was her mentor.
14. She played tennis, had a breakfast and was going to college.